ACT!

Here Is How
You Will Profit—

- 1 By having your Round Oak installed now at the lowest spot-cash price—at an actual saving of $14 to $30 (according to the size required)—with liberal club plan terms which place it within easy reach.
- 2 A small entrance fee is all you need pay when you make your application for membership—and this amount is credited to the cash price of the Round Oak installed in your home.
- 3 And then you simply pay small weekly or monthly dues until the amount of the cash price is paid.
- 4 All Comfort Club Members are given a whole year, WITHOUT INTEREST OR EXTRA CHARGES, in which to pay the full amount, and no one member is responsible for the payment of another's dues.
- 5 You do not have to wait until all dues are paid before you have the use and benefit of your Round Oak. The system for your home is delivered and stored on your own premises immediately after Round Oak Heating Engineers send us their guaranteed blueprints and recommendations, and installation work will be done as soon as possible.
- 6 All applications will be listed in the order received after approval by Engineering Department, and we reserve the right to refund entrance fees and cancel applications of those whose homes are not approved as naturally adapted to the guaranteed satisfactory operation of the Heating System.
- 7 The right is also reserved to refund entrance fees and cancel any applications over and above the number to which the Round Oak Comfort Club is limited by the Manufacturer.

SERVICE

You may grow to great riches and glory,
You may toil for yourself through the day;
You may write in your record and story
The struggles you've met on the way;
But vain is the fame that you boast of;
And wasted the years that you scan;
Your strength you have not made the most of,
If you've rendered no service to man.

HUMOR OF THE DAY

"I can't understand men," said the wife of an ex-soldier recently. "My husband ran a tank during the war and now he can't run a vacuum cleaner for me."—Boston Transcript.

"I wonder if it's true that good Americans when they die go to Paris?"

"One cannot tell; but I think it very probable that bad Parisians, when they die, go to America!"—London Mail.

"Gladys is trying to keep her engagement a secret."

"How do you know?"

"She told me so."—Boston Transcript.

"Why do you look into your vanity so much, girl?" Enamored of your handsome face?"

"Not exactly. There's a good-looking chap in the seat behind."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

"Why was Dr. Kutter so severely reprimanded by the club librarian?"

"They caught him absent-mindedly removing the appendix from the book he was reading."—American Legion Weekly.

Fond mother (in shop)—Is this baby's bonnet well made?

Saleslady—Well made, madam? It will last your baby a lifetime.—Boston Transcript.

Teacher in Physics—"A transparent object is one that you can look through. Now, name something that is transparent."

Billy Bright—"A doughnut."—Science & Inventions.

Jed Tunkins says many men pose as law-abiding citizens, but reserve the privilege of picking out their favorite laws.—Washington Star.

"Tried to have a sane Fourth at our house."

"What success did you have?"

"The kids all called it a crazy way to spend the day."—Detroit Free Press.

"Is May the kind of a girl that gives you any encouragement?"

Judge for yourself. The last time I called on her she kept wondering what it would feel like to have whiskers on her face."—Michigan Gargoyle.

Homes have made room for them in both places for two weeks and in this as all other good deeds Westerly and Stonington people will not be found wanting.

Many people who own property in the outlying districts near Westerly find that their stone fences have been knocked down and gardens trampled on by persons going berrying. The foragers do not seem to heed warnings given and trespass on posted lands. Farmers are obliged to replace the stones at their own expense and in many instances barbed wire is left down, animals at pasture in the property have gotten out onto the highway and valuable cows have been injured, caused by this carelessness. The owners of property feel that they should be protected from such lawlessness and intend to put an end to it.

DEATH ENDS "HUMILIATION" OF A DISCARDED FIRE HORSE

Washington, Aug. 3.—Ten years honorable service as a fire horse rewarded with a job hauling a garbage wagon broke the heart of Old Jack Gallup. He committed suicide today in front of a fire house.

Old Jack for years was one of three plump sleek bays who whirled a steamer to every big fire in Washington and many little ones, too. But the motor finally got Old Jack.

Today Jack turned up, pulling an ill-smelling, filthy garbage wagon. The day was hot and the job was nasty and the disgrace was worst of all. Jack took the bit in his teeth and bolted for the nearest engine house. He galloped full tilt into the brick wall and fell in a heap. The firemen, recognizing the old hero by brand pointed his hoofs gave him the coup de grace to end his struggle.

Nobody could convince them that Old Jack didn't desperately take his life rather than haul a garbage wagon.

When need is greatest help is nearest.

Veteran Diplomat In Race For Senate

John Work Garrett, veteran diplomat, who will oppose U. S. Senator France in the primaries next September for the nomination of a Republican candidate from Maryland. Mr. Garrett has been in the diplomatic service of the country for 20 years. His first appointment was as Secretary of the American Legation at the Hague, serving later at St. Petersburg, now Petrograd, Berlin and Rome. President Wilson named him Minister to Venezuela in 1916 and a year later he was assigned to Argentina. In 1907 President Wilson appointed him Minister to the Hague. In October, 1918, he resigned that position and returned to this country. Mr. Garrett's last public service was as secretary general of the Conference on Limitation of Armaments, which was held in Washington last winter.
